Verse 1

I've been tryna find your heart
But you keep burning all the bridges to where you are
I've been looking for a spark
But you just disappear and leave me here in the dark

Will it really make a difference
If nobody's gonna listen?
How could you be close to me
Physically, but feel so distant?
Feels like you drew a long line
And now I'm on the wrong side
And if we don't believe the same
Dream the same
You leave me on the outside

Chorus

SA Behind your walls
SA You build them up so tall
SA You don't even hear me calling
SA Brick by brick, I try to tear them down
SA But you just stand your ground
SA You don't even hear the sound of SA All my cannons raging
SA Behind your walls (B whoa-oh-oh-oh),
SA Walls (B whoa-oh-oh-oh),
SA Walls (B whoa-oh-oh-oh, Oh)
SA Behind your walls

Verse 2

SA I try to find the words
B But no matter what I say,
B I swear they go unheard
SA And they scatter like the leaves
BS*A I can tell by the look in your eyes
BS*A Oh, that you don't wanna see

SB*A You build them up so tall

Bridge

If I could change what made you this way
I'd buy up that house of blame
And burn it down in your name
But you just stay
